

CROWE'S nest

Former Kiwi cricketer Martin Crowe knew that his new high-tech hair was worth it when his cousin, Hollywood badboy Russell Crowe, gave it a thumbs-up when he was at his Australian ranch. The 38-year-old Sky TV host's only regret is that he waited so long for his thatch-up by Advanced Hair Studio. "Before, when I looked in the mirror, I'd cringe. Now it feels like me." The new locks are a mixture of his own hair and other strands, fixed to a false layer of skin.
